

Bulletin Suspended Service KAZAKHSTAN

PLEASE BE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

Due to the current civil unrest in Kazakhstan, SkyNet have no alternative but to suspend their service to this destination.

SkyNet is working to find a solution and will update and confirm when we are able to commence the service once again which we hope, will be very soon.

Meanwhile, if you have shipments that are in transit to this destination, they will be held in transit and continue their journey as soon as we are able to.

Please refrain from sending shipments for Kazakhstan to SkyNet with immediate effect. If we receive shipments for this destination, we will hold them at our hub until we have a solution.

We apologise for the inconvenience caused.
